Your donation provides food, shelter, and veterinary care to animals in desperate need of help, like Henry. When Henry arrived at El RefUgio (left), he was starving and only weighed 12 kilos (26 pounds). He was so weak that he

Henry immediately began receiving medical care. He received weekly chemotherapy treatments for his tumor, treatments for his skin problems, plenty of nutritious food, and of course lots and lots of love from our wonderful volunteers! After three months (right), his tumor was completely gone, his fur was full and shiny, and he had almost doubled his original weight!

Thanks to your support, Henry is now a happy, healthy, and playful dog with a wonderful forever family! All of this is possible because your generous donation provided the medical treatment, food, and shelter that Henry needed. Your donation helped to save Henry's life!
